Location

The hotel is on the north side of Hyde Park about one mile from Marble Arch.

Three Bus Routes and two Underground Stations give easy access from all parts of the city. Paddington Mainline Station with the Heathrow Airport Express Link is a five minutes walk. Limited free car parking spaces are available for hotel guests on a first come first served basis, and the M40 Motorway giving access to the M25 London Orbital Motorway and other routes is a simple five-minute drive away.

A short stroll away, Queensway is a bustling cosmopolitan thoroughfare with diverse restaurants, cafes, shops, pubs, cinemas and multi-storey shopping centre. In contrast, Hyde Park and Kensington Gardens facing the hotel are large almost rural areas of peace and quiet in the middle of the city.
