Directions

The house is close to the intersection of M4 and M5.

Leave M5 at J16 A38 in direction of Thornbury.

From A38 turn left down Over Lane towards Almondsbury garden centre.

Enjoy a lovely view across the Severn estuary and notice the spire of a small church because the house is near that church.

Turn first right down Sunday's Lane. This is opposite the garden centre and near a stone memorial.

Go to the bottom of the hill. You will pass a shop called Almondsbury forge and the church.

It is the first house on the left. Court Farm.

It says private road where you walk or drive through off The Pound.

You can park at the back of Court Farm which is a steep turn left.

The entrance to the workshop is at the front of the house. Walk through a small metal gate and up a stone path to the front door which is in a small stone porch.

(East barn is opposite the house. They have a wooden gate with their name on which is a useful landmark.)
